Glycolic Peels

Facial peels offer benefits for aged and photo-damaged skin, acne, hyper pigmentation (brown spots or age spots) and scar reduction. Glycolic acid peels have been a popular way to achieve resurfacing with the latest stem cell technology.

Glycolic Acid Peel with Stem Cell

At Timeout for You we use glycolic acid (with stem cell technology), derived from sugar cane and it has the smallest molecular size out of all the AHA's (alpha hydroxy acids). What does this mean?? Well, glycolic acid will penetrate quickly into the skin via the pores and sebaceous glands dissolving oil and debris along the way. You will feel a tingling sensation with the peel, but it is only on for a short amount of time. Your pores will look immaculate and the skin's texture and surface will be smooth and fresh. This type of peel stimulates the growth of collagen, which is lost due to aging and sun exposure.

Treatment Suggestions

Glycolic peels appeal to people who want to have measurable results without lengthy recuperation time. Glycolic peels can be done up to once a week or as a series of peels.

Why do Peels work?

Our skin naturally sheds every 28 days. With age, this process slows which causes dull, tired looking skin. The daily use of exfoliants along with a weekly peel dissolves dead, flaky skin cells, promotes collagen production, and builds elasticity. If your skin is continually exfoliated, it's forced to create new cells - at a rate it did before the 28 day cycle started to slow. Our products offer just the right amount of exfoliation. Over exfoliating causes damage and will reverse what you are trying to accomplish. There's no need to overdo it, be kind to your skin! If you follow our skin care regime, your skin will be perfectly exfoliated AND nourished - your skin will GLOW!!!
